

Receipt Number [REDACTED]		Case Type I129 - PETITION FOR A NONIMMIGRANT WORKER
Received Date 07/28/2020	Priority Date	Petitioner [REDACTED]
Notice Date 01/04/2022	Page 1 of 2
LAW OFFICES OF LI AND ASSO c/o MARK X LI 17700 CASTLETON ST STE 286 ROWLAND HEIGHTS CA 91748		Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: L1A Valid from 01/04/2022 to 01/03/2023 Consulate: SHANGHAI

The above petition has been approved for the classification requested. However, the status previously accorded the worker(s) had expired before this petition was filed. Therefore, the worker(s) were out of status when this petition was filed. Thus, the worker(s) are not eligible for the requested change of status. Accordingly, the request for a change of status is denied. There is no appeal from the decision denying the requested change of status.

Even though the worker(s) are ineligible for a change of status, they may depart the United States and apply for the proper visa at a consulate abroad. Then they may apply at a port of entry to reenter the U.S. based on that new visa. The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice and forward the lower portion to the worker(s) for presentation at the U.S. Consulate.

To speed this process, we have sent notification of the approval of the classification to the consulate listed above. If you have any questions about visa issuance, please contact the consulate directly.

If a visa is issued, upon admission in this classification the worker(s) will be authorized to be employed by the petitioner for the authorized period pursuant to the terms and conditions of the petition. When seeking admission to the United States, the following classifications may be eligible for a grace period of up to 10 days before, and up to 10 days after the petition validity period: CW-1, E-1, E-2, E-3, H-1B, H-2B, H-3, L-1A, L-1B, O-1, O-2, P-1, P-2, P-3, TN-1, and TN-2. H-2A nonimmigrants may be eligible for a grace period of up to one week before and 30 days after the petition validity period. If provided at admission, this grace period will be annotated on the beneficiary's I-94 by Customs and Border Protection (CBP). The grace period is a period of authorized stay but does not provide the beneficiary authorization to work beyond the petition validity period. This notice, and a copy of the Form I-94, Departure Record, for each worker, should be kept by the petitioner to show that the employment or training of each of the workers included in this petition is authorized.

If the worker(s) will apply for a visa at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection facility different from that listed above, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, in order to notify the new consulate.

If any of the worker(s) included in this petition do not actually enter the United States, and substitutions of different workers are not made, the petitioner must notify this office so the allocated nonimmigrant visa numbers can be re-used.

Please read the back of this form carefully for more information. If you have questions about tax withholding, please contact the Internal Revenue Service. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129 petition.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
